WSWHE BOCES Licensed Practical Nursing Program (LPN)

The Licensed Practical Nurse Program (LPN) is a 1,200-hour program for adults. The program prepares students for the NYS National Council Licensure Examination (NCLEX), which is a national test administered at the state level. It also meets the standards established by the New York State Education Department, Office of Higher and Professional Education. The LPN program prepares graduates in the challenging field of health care. The program integrates academic excellence with the highest professional standards while stressing the humanistic side of nursing.

Take the First Step:

Students interested in applying to the LPN program at the WSWHE BOCES must first pass a TEAS Exam (Test of Essential Academic Skills) before being eligible for acceptance to the program. The Teas Exam is an assessment of math, science, reading and verbal skills. A TEAS score of 55% or above is a requirement for admission to the LPN Program.

To register for the TEAS Exam, please log on to: www.atitesting.com. TEAS Exams are offered at Southern Adirondack Education Center (SAEC), 1051 Dix Avenue, Hudson Falls, NY, during March and April. Also available on the ATI website are study manuals and online practice tests. You may wish to purchase test material to help you prepare for the TEAS Exam, however, purchasing study material is optional. Free test preparation questions are also available on the ATI website.
